

Richards Jr., William T.

Wounded Soldier Home To Recuperate

SEP 13 1944
Pfc. William T. Richards, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Richards, Sr., 1222 Center Street, the first Bethlehem service man to be reported wounded in the invasion of France, has returned to this country for further hospitalization. He was home on a short furlough this past week-end. Pfc. Richards received shrapnel wounds in the leg and upper part of his body and is convalescing at the Dshon General Hospital, Butler, Pa.

September 13, 1944