

Rice, Carl F.

Air Cadet
OCT 8 1943

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer P. Rice, of 75 West Laurel Street, this city, received a letter from their son, Air Cadet Carl F. Rice, that he is now stationed at Greenwood, Miss. He has been in service since January 21, 1943. When he first entered the service he was sent to Fort Eustis, Va., where he received basic training; to Nashville, Tenn., classification center, where he was qualified for pilot. From there he entered Maxwell Field, Ala., where he received his pre-flight training, and to Souther Field, Americus, Ga., where he passed his primary training. His ambition is to pilot a fighter plane. He has not had a furlough since entering the service.
