

McReynolds, Norman

Graduates

Norman McReynolds, Seaman 1-c A. R.-C. A. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted G. Drummond, Bath, Route 2, has started flight operations at a Florida Naval Air School. He was graduated from Radio School at Memphis Tennessee, in February, 1944, and received the present rating. According to a letter received by his parents he was to have made his first flight this week. He attended Liberty High School for two years and completed at Westport High in Kansas City, Mo. "Mac" the drummer as he is known locally, played in the USO at Memphis, Tenn., and with the Naval Base orchestra at Jacksonville, Florida, during his training period.

July 14, 1944