

Deily, Raymond E.

GRADUATES AT CARLISLE

CARLISLE BARRACKS, Pa., August 12 (Special to the Globe-Times)—First Lt. Raymond E. Deily, Medical Corps., of 613 Spring Street, Bethlehem, well trained for duty with troops in the field after six weeks of rigorous preparation, today was graduated from Medical Field Service School, Carlisle Barracks.

Following the exercises in Tugo Hall, he left for his new station where he will put into actual practice the military training, medical tactics, military sanitation, logistics, field medicine and surgery, and administration which he learned thoroughly at this "West Point" of the Medical Department.

He was among a class of 445 physicians, dentists, veterinarians and sanitary engineers who prepared themselves at this Army school to convert their professional skills from peacetime to war conditions. Lieutenant Deily, 27, attended Jefferson Medical College where he received his M. D. degree.
