Andrew Kovacs Returns From Pacific Service

Andrew Kovacs, U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. John Kovacs, 814 Laufer Ave., recently returned to the States aboard the USS Euryale (submarine tender), after spending three years in the Pacific. Kovacs was granted a 30-day furlough, after which he will be discharged.

While overseas the local veteran visited Australia, Japan and Hawaii. Following discharge he will take a position with the Matson Steamship Company as steward's mate. He attended local schools and prior to entering the service was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company.
