

Copek, Leo D.

Promoted to Coxswain
"Somewhere in the Canal Zone," where he is serving with the U. S. Navy, Leo D. Copek, son of John Copek, 419 Vienyard Street observed his nineteenth birthday Wednesday.

LEO D. COPEK

On April 1, 1941, when seventeen years of age, he enlisted in the navy, and following his training at Norfolk, Va., he was sent to New London, Conn., being assigned to the submarine service. He was recently promoted to the rank of coxswain.

FEB 25 1943

February 25, 1943