

Two Local Draft Boards Send Men to Service

JUL 24 1944

Eight inductees from Draft Board No. 1 entrained for the Allentown Induction Center this morning for assignment to service.

Last night a farewell meeting was held for them at the board's headquarters, 713 Eighth Avenue. They were addressed by Stanley K. Weaver, chairman of the board, and by Frank Collie and Howard Goodman, board members.

Mr. Weaver discussed necessary and fair action of draft boards within definite rules and regulations. Mr. Collie and Mr. Goodman, former servicemen, assured the inductees that conditions in the United States armed forces are superior to those in any other army in the world.

Leader of the group was Richard D. Ogden, 561 Spring Street. Others were:

George E. Towle, Aumsville Ore.; Norman A. Shane, 1024 West Market Street; Ira B. Born, 25 North King Street, Hampton, Va.; Edward E. Connors, 723 Twelfth Avenue; Donald Pharo, 818 Highland Avenue; Walter J. McNally, 1218 West Broad Street and Robert J. Hoffert, 301 Spring Street.

BOARD NO. 2

Bethlehem boys who left this morning from Selective Service Board No. 2 for the Allentown Induction Center included the following:

Joseph Anderson, Hubert Bragg, Burton Bachman, Neal Balliet, James Dunstan, Anthony Foraks, Harvey Freyling, George Heck, Donald Himmelwright, John Hector, Truman Kunsman, William Lasso and Hugo Larson.

Also, Charles Lozun, M. William Miles, William Mease, Joseph Mulherin, Robert Mininger, Elwood Paulus, Melvin Peters, Kenneth Pittenger, Merritt Pharo, R. Elmer Rice, Jeremiah Snyder, James Schwartz and Richard Seifert.

Jul. 24, 1944