

Antonelli, Sylvio

GIVEN DOUBLE PARTY.

A surprise party was held for Sylvio Antonelli by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shelvo at their home in Butztown recently. Mr. Antonelli celebrated his birthday and the party was in recognition of the event and also as a gesture of farewell. The young man left this morning for New Cumberland induction center to start service with the U. S. Army.

Patriotic colors decorated the room and Mr. Antonelli received many appropriate gifts. A buffet luncheon was served and music was furnished by Geza Bokon and Daniel Shelvo.

Present were Mary Saver, Geza Bokon, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Paychek, Mr. and Mrs. David Alexy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bubser, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Campenella, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Shelvo, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Shelvo, Paul Shelvo, Daniel D. Shelvo, Mrs. Jennie Cruchiene, Wanda Cruchiene, John Slioko, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gentilcore, Arthur Versetiteli, Ralph Otti, Miss Rose Gentilcore, Nicholas DeNofrio, Miss Rose DeNofrio, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gentilcore, Joseph Krenos, Victoria Falcone, Louis Nagy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loschi, Charles Yanko, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Antonelli, Virginia Antonelli, Alfred Antonelli, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Campenella, Miss Phil Gentilcore, Sylvio Antonelli, Daniel Shelvo, Jr., Evelyn Shelvo, Dolores Shelvo and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shelvo.

October 3, 1942