

Halteman, Clemence W.

Graduates

Word has been received from Lieut. Clemence W. Halteman Jr. of Tyndall Field, Panama City, Fla., that he has been made a first pilot on a B-17. He graduated recently from the Flying Fortress School at Hendricks Field, Sebring, Fla. Lieut. Halteman was commissioned and received his pilot wings on December 5, 1943, at the Freeman Army Air Field, Seymour, Ind. At his new station he will be first pilot on Army B-17's for gunnery students also will check out co-pilots from combat crews. Lieut. Halteman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemence W. Halteman Sr. of Bethlehem R. D. 1.

February 29, 1944