

Scott, Davis

To Report for Assignment

Lieutenant (j. g.) J. Davis Scott, former Globe-Times reporter and former sports official, who attended a Navy officers' training school for the last two months, has been spending a week's leave with friends in this city and Allentown.

He will return to Washington for further assignment Monday. Prior to receiving his commission, Lieutenant Scott had been doing important government work for more than a year.

JAN 29 1943

January 30, 1943