Sgt. de Schweinitz Weds Mt. Airy Girl In Home Ceremony

AUG 9 1945
On the flag-stone terrace in a bower of overhanging trees, Miss Margery Anne Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Skinner of Mt. Airy, was married yesterday afternoon at her home to First Sgt. Karl deSchweinitz Jr., AUS, son of Mrs. Logan deSchweinitz of Germantown and Karl deSchweinitz of Washington D. C. The Rev. Dr. W. Sherman Skinner, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Germantown, formerly of Bethlehem, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Paul deSchweinitz and his aunt, Mrs. F. F. Couch attended the wedding from Bethlehem. The young man is the grandson of the late Rt. Rev. Paul deSchweinitz, bishop of the Moravian Church.

Mrs. William Wyant Dean attended the bride as matron of honor and Mary Oakes and Patricia Skinner, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white eyelet embroidery and a short veil. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and tiny pale pink rose buds.

Her matron of honor wore a blue gown and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers; and the little flower girls wore blue and white dresses. Their bouquets were miniature replicas of the bride's.

A wedding supper was served on the terrace after the wedding.

Sgt. and Mrs. deSchweinitz were classmates at Friends School, Philadelphia. The bride is also a graduate of Smith College and the bridegroom, of Dartmouth College. He enlisted in the Army in the Summer of 1943 and left for overseas duty in March, 1944. He saw action in the European theatre and just arrived home after more than a year's service there.
