Two From Bethlehem At Keesler Field JAN 12, 194

KEESLER FIELD, Biloxi, Miss.—
Two soldiers of this Army Air Forces Training Command post from Bethlehem, have been enrolled in Keesler Field's B-24 Liberator bomber mechanics school as a reward for the excellent showing they made recently in the Army's mechanical aptitude test.

These men will spend approximately 17 weeks learning to perform the vital task of keeping America's giant Liberators in "fighting trim" for long-distance bombing raids against the Axis.

The new students are: Pvt. Max
A. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Green, 216 East Union Street and Pvt. William Leroy Diehl, son of Mrs. Elsie Diehl, 1641 12th Street.
