FRED MILLER

RICHARD MILLER

MAR 15 1944

These two gobs, Fred A. Miller Jr. and Richard L. Miller, sons of Mrs. Katherine M. Miller, 30 West North Street, Bethlehem, have received advancements in the Navy. Fred, at the left, is a seaman second class and is somewhere at sea. Dick is a boatswain's mate second class and is now at Ft. Pierce, Fla. Fred enlisted in June of 1943 and received his preliminary training at the Naval Base, Sampson, N. Y. He is a graduate of Liberty High and was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Company before going into the service. He was home on a visit a short time ago. Richard is in the Sea-Bees, in which service he enlisted in August of 1943. His first stop was Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va. He is a former student at L. H. S. and crane operator for the Bethlehem Steel Company. He, also, was home recently on a ten-day leave.
