

Harper, Milton A.

Sporting 3 Chevrons

Here is Milton A. Harper, Bethlehem soldier now in England and wearing for the first time the three stripes denoting his advancement to the grade of sergeant in Uncle Sam's Army. He is the nephew of Mrs. Susie Williams, 229 Diamond Street, and son of the late Mrs. Margaret Harper, Mrs. Williams' sister. He received his basic training at Camp Shelby, Miss., upon entrance into the service April 1, 1942. From Shelby he was sent to Camp Kilmer, N. J., and then overseas.
