

Mack, Donald F.

Easton Youth Wins
Bugle School Honors

FEB 28 1944
Donald F. Mack, Bugler First Class, of Easton, was named honor man of the recent Bugle School graduating class at the Naval Training Station, San Diego. He scored 94.5 percent.

Prior to joining the Navy at Phillipsburg, N. J., last August 23, Mack was graduated from Wilson High School. During his final two years there he was student director of the school's band and a trumpet player. He also did summer band work and for one year had his own dance orchestra.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Mack, reside at 20th and Northampton Streets, Easton.

February 26, 1944