Lahr, Roy

(Official U. S. Navy Photo)
Despite his big grin, from the look of his opponent's hand in a card game at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Long Beach, Calif., luck is still going against Roy Lahr, fireman second class, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lahr Sr., 719 North Main Street, Bethlehem. Lahr had his hand painfully crushed as the result of an engine-room accident aboard the new-type Navy attack-transport in which he served last June. He has been a patient at the Long Beach Hospital since.

February 9, 1945