Discharged Vet Addresses<sup>FEB 22</sup> 1945 Auxiliary

L. M. Fraivillig, discharged veteran of World War 2, was the guest speaker last night at the meeting of Auxiliary, Harry F. W. Johnson Post No. 379, American Legion. Mr. Fraivillig praised the work of the American Red Cross at the various war-fronts, and related many of his experiences in the war.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Robert Lewis, who sang "The Betsy Ross Song," accompanied by his father, Edgar Lewis.

The Auxiliary will participate in a drive to obtain 500 ear-phones for the Naval Hospital in Philadelphia. This drive is being sponsored by the State Auxiliary.

Eight new members were accepted into the Auxiliary: Mrs. Gertrude Hawk, Mrs. Lorraine Foltz, Mrs. Annie Fidler, Mrs. Doris Taft, Mrs. Opal Judd, Mrs. Mafy Dietz, Mrs. Carrie Cope and Mrs. Emma Knapp.

Mrs. Charles Bowman presided at the meeting. Hostesses were: Mrs. Harry Stern, Mrs. Lewis Schnabel, Mrs. Charles Schantz and Mrs. Ernest Spangler.
