

Bellan, J. M.

LOCALITE CONDUCTS RITES AT MID-WESTERN CAMP

The Rev. J. M. Bellan, 527 Third Avenue, now a second lieutenant in the United States Chaplain Reserves, at Camp Forsythe, Kan., conducted the watchnight New Year Day services there, according to a bulletin received by Councilman George J. Ruyak, director of public safety, and other friends here.

A member of the Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania, the Rev. Mr. Bellan served in the chaplain reserves sixteen years and was called to active service last August. He formerly resided at Cairnbrook, Pa.
