

Van Billiard, Arthur

Cpl. Van Billiard Helps Assault Trucks

WITH U. S. FORCES IN BELGIUM—When the heavy stuff is needed at the front the men of the 3596th Quartermaster Truck Company of which Cpl. Arthur Van Billiard, Bethlehem R. D. 3, is a member, gets it there, and gets it there fast.

FEB 17 1945

Their job is to handle the bulky cargoes, the big machines that must be hauled to the battle areas on powerful 10-ton truck trailers. Many times since they landed on the continent, they have rushed vital machines up to meet the needs of the Allied armies.

Captain Jack R. Singleton, company commander, said: "Despite heavy nature of their work, my men have had no serious accidents, nor have our operations ever been hindered because of mechanical breakdowns."

February 17, 1945