

Womack, Robert

VIRGINIA ABSHER BRIDE OF ENSIGN R. WOMACK

7-4-1942
Oklahoma Girl Married to Naval Officer Now Studying at Lehigh University.

On Friday at 7 p. m., in the First Presbyterian Church, North Side, the Rev. Roger Enloe officiated at the marriage of Miss Virginia Frances Absher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Floyd Absher, of Bartlesville, Okla., and Ensign Robert Womack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Womack, of Dallas, Texas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white mousseline de soi, with lace trim in leaf pattern, long full sleeves and train, and a finger tip veil falling from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white satin prayer book, covered with gardenias and having a shower of baby's breath and bouvardia.

Mrs. C. U. Burk, of Enid, Okla., residing temporarily in Bethlehem, was the bride's matron of honor. Her gown was pale pink, with a bodice of eyelet embroidery and net skirt. She wore a Dutch cap matching the bodice and carried a loose Colonial bouquet of blue flowers, including delphiniums, cornflowers and centuria.

Ensign C. U. Burk was the bridegroom's best man.

Mrs. W. F. Hitchens, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and "Because," "Meditation" from "Thais," and "Perfect Love."

The bride is a graduate of Ward-Belmont Girls' School at Nashville, Tenn., and received her B. A. degree from the University of Oklahoma. The bridegroom was graduated from the University of Oklahoma and is an ensign in the United States Navy. He is taking the Diesel engineering course at Lehigh University.

Ensign and Mrs. Womack will reside at 60 East Broad Street until September, when the bridegroom will complete his course at Lehigh.
