

Bohning, Harold J. Jr

Private 1-c

Harold J. Bohning Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Bohning, Sr., of 1805 East Fourth Street, was recently promoted to PFC, according to information received by his parents.

He was inducted into the armed forces in May, 1943, and following preliminary training at Fort Bragg, S. C., he was transferred to a ski unit, and sent to a Colorado base for training. During the training period he suffered a torn ligament, and for some time was hospitalized.

He is presently a member of an M. P. unit, stationed in Indianola, Nebraska. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Jan 17, 1945