

Deutsch, David E.

Inducted Into Air Corps

David E. Deutsch, of 2889 Easton Avenue, was inducted into the U. S. Army Air Corps at Allentown, Saturday, as a meteorology cadet, and will leave this Saturday for Boca Raton, Fla., to begin his training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Deutsch, of 440 Webster Street.

He was graduated from Lafayette College in 1939 with a degree in chemistry after being awarded a scholarship there by the Liberty High School Alumni Association. At Lafayette he was news editor of "The Lafayette," the semi-weekly college newspaper and was sports editor of the "Melange," the college year book. He is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalistic society. He was also active in debating and intra-mural sports, and was on the dean's list.

Until his enlistment in the air corps, Deutsch was employed in the metallurgical department of the Bethlehem Steel Company as an inspector.

His wife, the former Miss Mary C. Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Buck, of 415 Packer Street, Easton, is employed as an assistant cosmetician by Dennis Drug Company, and will remain in Bethlehem until such time as she can join her husband.

FEB 20 1943

21
February 2, 1943