

George J. Anthony

Promoted

CORP. GEORGE ANTHONY

George J. Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Anthony of 703 East Sixth Street, now wears the chevrons of Corporal Technician, U. S. Army, according to information received by his parents.

Inducted into the armed forces on May 4, 1943, he received his preliminary training at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas. was subsequently transferred to Fort Knox, Ky., where he completed a 14 weeks course in an army school, graduating as a radio mechanic. He is presently stationed in California. Before his induction he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. APR 3 1944

4/3/44