

Hi Hinger, William C.

Miss Herman Is Bride of ^{JUL} 10 1944 Lt. Hittinger

In the Old Moravian Chapel at 4 p. m., yesterday, Miss Elizabeth Elaine Herman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Herman, of 1004 West Union Boulevard, was married to Lieut. William Charles Hittinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hittinger, of 433 East Laurel Street. The Rev. Hugh Kemper, pastor of the First Moravian Church in Easton, performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua crepe dress with a white hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath. Miss Jeanne Herman was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pink crepe dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of blue larkspur and pink roses.

David Gearhart, of Palmerton, fraternity brother of Lieut. Hittinger, was the best man.

The church was attractively decorated with white gladiolas, carnations, and palms. Fred Adams, organist, played the traditional wedding marches, and gave a recital before the ceremony. Miss Jane Adams sang "Because", and "O, Promise Me", accompanied by Mr. Adams.

A wedding supper for the immediate families followed the ceremony at the bride's home. The couple then left for a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains.

Mrs. Hittinger is a graduate of Liberty High School and attended Bethlehem Business College. She is active in Girl Scouting, and is leader of Troop 13. At present she is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Lieut. Hittinger, also an alumnus of Liberty High School, was graduated from Lehigh University, and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity. He was commissioned July 8th, following graduation from the Army Ordnance Officer's Candidate School, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Aberdeen.
