

FUKO, L.

IN MEDICAL TRAINING UNIT

Five Northampton County boys have arrived at Camp Robinson, Ark., to be trained at the U. S. Army Medical Replacement Center there. Eleven weeks will be spent in classes and practice work and then they will be assigned to some medical department organization.

Two of the men are from Hellertown, L. Fuko, of 1428 Courtright Avenue, and Roy Rogers, of 661 Main Street. The other three are George H. Brandt, of Bethlehem R. D. 4; Charles Asbath, Bath R. D. 2, and William G. Fava, Nazareth R. D. 1.
