

Case, James P.

Gets Promotion

News of the promotion of Corp. James P. Case, radio operator in training with the Glider Infantry at Camp Mackall, N. C., has been received this week by his wife, Georgine. Case is now a sergeant, the information states.

Sgt. Case is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Case, 808 Wood Street, this city. He has been six months in the service and was made a corporal last September. He was last home in August when he spent ten days with his wife, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Geary, 801 Wood Street. The couple has been married about seven months.

October 29, 1943