

Miller, Ellwood W.

MADE A SERGEANT.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Fred. W. H. Miller, of

SGT. ELLWOOD W. MILLER

15 West Locust Street, of the promotion of their son, Ellwood, who is now wearing the stripes of a sergeant. Sgt. Ellwood W. Miller enlisted in the armed forces in June, 1942. He was given his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. After the completion of this training he was sent to the Mississippi University where he graduated in the Advanced Army Administration course when he again returned to Fort Knox and later to Camp Campbell, Ky., where he was assigned to the Adj. General's Division of the Armored Force. Before enlisting in the service he was employed in the office of the Bethlehem Foundry & Machine Company. FEB 1 1943

February 1, 1943