

Fritchman, M. J.

Air Corps Officer Home

Lieut. M. L. Fritchman, U. S. Army Air Corps, and wife, the former Betty Lou Price, of Dundalk, Md., are visiting Lieut. Fritchman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Fritchman, 17 East Church Street. Lieut. Fritchman was granted a fifteen-day furlough after undergoing an emergency bone operation in his right ankle, having been discharged from an army field hospital in Tampa, Florida, February 14.

Lieut. Fritchman was awarded his wings at Marianna, Florida, December 13. The day prior to his graduation he and Miss Price were united in marriage by the army chaplain at Marianna.

They will leave here Thursday for Dundalk where they will spend several days with Mrs. Fritchman's mother. They will then entrain for Sarasota, Florida, where Lieut. Fritchman will report for duty as a pursuit plane pilot.
