

It's that time of year . . .

The Bethlehem Gadfly Fun Stuff, Local Color July 20, 2019

The Gadfly invites “local color” photos of this sort

. . . when Mother Nature's l'll childrun head out on their own

sit too long in that chair and you might have some trouble

getting up

peek-a-boo

someone's feeling

left out

every house

needs a

greeter flower

Can you tell Gadfly's not getting much work done on this hot day?
