

Globe-Times Staffs Fete Bath WAVE

MAR 23 1943

The employees of the Bethlehem Globe-Times gave a farewell party on Monday evening at the Fountain Hill American Legion Home, for Miss Dorothy Angelstein of Bath, a member of the circulation department and the first one of the employees to join the WAVES.

Group singing was enjoyed during the luncheon hour after which the heads of the departments were called on for brief remarks.

Mrs. Benjamin Sawyer in behalf of the employees presented Miss Angelstein with a gift.

Miss Angelstein leaves on Thursday for Hunter College, New York, on a course.
