

Domyan, Leonard J.
Elizabeth

Local Seabee Arrives Home After Discharge

Leonard J. Domyan, ship fitter first class, Seabees, has arrived home after receiving his honorable discharge following 23 months service in the Pacific. His mother, Mrs. A. G. Domyan, resides at 930 Monocacy Street.

Domyan served overseas with the 53rd MCB, Company A, and took part in the invasion of Guam. Prior to entering the service he was graduated from Bethlehem Catholic High School and was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company, where he completed the apprentice foundry course.

A sister, Ensign Elizabeth A. Domyan, Navy Nurse, is stationed in the Navy Hospital, Dublin, Ga.

December 6, 1945