

McCard, James M.

Promoted

James M. McCard, son of Raymond McCard, 1427 Easton Avenue, has been promoted to the rank of aviation machinist mate, third class. Somewhere over the Pacific he observed his twenty-first birthday Monday. A graduate of Liberty High School, class of '40, he enlisted in the U. S. Navy on April 20, 1942. Following his basic training at Newport, R. I., he was transferred to Navy Pier, Chicago, where he completed a seven-months course, graduating with the present rank. He later attended an aviation gunnery school at Jacksonville, Fla., graduating as an air machine gunner. He recently completed a course in a naval transition training school at San Diego, Cal. He has been assigned to patrol duty "somewhere over the Pacific." Before joining Uncle Sam's forces he had been an employe in No. 2 machine shop of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

June 9, 1943