M. H. Stuckey Promoted To Staff Sergeant

Maurice H. Stuckey of the Air Service Command, who is stationed at McClellan Field, California, has been promoted from the grade of Sergeant to Staff Sergeant according to an announcement from Brigadier General Clinton W. Howard commanding general of Sacramento Air Service Command in the western theatre of operations.

Staff Sergeant Stuckey's promotion was made in recognition of outstanding service with his organization at McClellan, one of the Air Service Command installations charged with the service, supply, maintenance and salvage of all flying craft assigned to Army Air Forces.

Staff Sergeant Stuckey is the husband of Mrs. Irene Stuckey, 714 Evans Street, Bethlehem.

He entered the service November 6, 1942, and now has an important job to do at the depot which sends many airplanes to combat zones and trains both enlisted men and civilians for duties wherever Air Service Command units are needed to keep 'em flying—whether on the sandy wastes of North Africa, the jungles of the Solomons or the ice fields of Alaska.
