

Holland, Sol

Home On Visit To Family

Pvt. Sol. Holland, former proprietor of the Holland Shoe Store, 120 East Third Street, is at home on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Esther Lisker, 507 First Avenue. Enroute north from Camp Wheeler, Ga., he stopped in at the U. S. Marine base at Parris Island, S. C., to see Abe Rosenstein, in training there.

Pvt. Holland is serving Uncle Sam for the second time. During World War I he was stationed briefly at Camp Lee, Va., but the war ended before he got across. He was unassigned. This time the draft got him into the infantry and he has been in the army since November 7, 1942. MAP 9 1943
