

Halkins Jr, James A.

Commissioned

James A. Halkins Jr., 20, of 334 West Fourth Street, was commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve when he graduated recently from the Naval Reserve Midshipman's School at Abbott Hall, Northwestern University, Chicago, Ill. Ensign Halkins was editor of the Liberty High School newspaper and graduated with the class of '43. He attended Ursinus College with the Navy V-12 and was then stationed at Asbury Park, N. J., before reporting to Northwestern University.

He is now on convalescence leave recovering from scarlet fever and will report to Miami, Fla., on June 20 for further training and assignment to a unit of the fleet.
