

Kneedler, Walter J.

Bangor Soldier Serves
As Stenographer on Okinawa

OKINAWA—Technical Sergeant Walter J. Kneedler, 30, 225 Market Street, Bangor, is working as a stenographer in the G-5 Section of Okinawa Base Command, helping in the work of getting soldiers home to the States.

A bookkeeper at the Merchant's National Bank, Bangor, in civilian life, Sgt. Kneedler entered the service in May, 1943, and has served overseas since August 25, 1944. His wife, Pearl, lives at 225 East Market Street, Bangor. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Kneedler, 108 Jackson Avenue, Pen Argyl.

December 11, 1946