

Hippensteal, Paul

Pfc. Paul Hippensteal
Wins Jitterbug Contest
In Sunny Italy

AUG 9 1946

Giving an exhibition of rhythmic contortions heretofore not seen on a dance floor in Cortina, Italy, Pfc. Paul Hippensteal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hippensteal, 328 Franklin St., won the jitterbug contest sponsored by the 337th Field Artillery Battalion as part of a "Sports Carnival."

The "Sports Carnival", held during the 11 days the battalion spent at Cortina, included the regular line of sports such as baseball, basketball, volleyball, etc., with jitterbugging, photography and fishing as added attractions.

Pfc. Hippensteal, who recently reenlisted for another three-year

"hitch", has been serving overseas for a year and a half. Inducted in January, 1944, he was stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.; Camp Breckenridge, Ky., and Ft. Jackson, S. C., before leaving for his overseas assignment.

August 9, 1946