

Farrell, William F.

Marine Promoted

The U. S. Marines get ahead in the world and William F. Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Farrell, of Pine Grove, is no exception. He was promoted to private first class recently. An expert rifle and pistol shot, he received his boot camp training at Parris Island, S. C., after enlistment on September of 1942. He was stationed at Hadnot Point, New River, N. C., for a time and while there completed training in the Field Telephone Operator's course. He was home in January on a five-day furlough.

PFC. WILLIAM F. FARRELL

Pfc. Farrell resided in this vicinity for some time with his sister, Mrs. James Murphy, 631 Smiley Street, Fountain Hill. He was employed in the press forge department of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
