START FLIGHT TRAINING.

Lewisburg, Pa., Nov. 27. (Special to the Globe-Times)—Two young men from the Bethlehem area have started their primary flight training under the United States Navy Reserve V-5 program at Bucknell University.

They are George Pali, 438 East Goepp Street, Bethlehem, and Alfred Lerch, Coopersburg R. D. 1.

Members of a class of 20 naval air cadets, the men will attend classes in ground training at the university and will take actual flight training at the Danville airport.
