

Schimmel, Leonard

Six Navy Men
Return to Homes
After Discharge 1945

Their naval careers behind them, six more Bethlehem sailors have returned to their homes with honorable discharges received at the Bainbridge, Md., separation point.

Leonard C. Schimmel, CCM, has been in the service 38 months. His parents live at 123 Wall Street. Joseph Barros, AS, last stationed at Jefferson ME School in Philadelphia, has been in military service 35 months. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Barros, 515 Selfridge Street. William J. Reppert, Bugler 1/C, husband of Mrs. Irene Reppert, 627 Seventh Avenue, was last stationed on the Hornet. He has 51 months duty to his credit. Kenneth Blaine Sayers, WT3/C, last stationed aboard the USS Edgecombe, has been in the service 20 months. His wife lives in this city. Joseph P. Sheehan, SK1/C, with 36 months service, was last stationed on the USS Oak Victory. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sheehan, reside at 427 Taylor Street. Also discharged at Bainbridge was James Joseph Dreifert, EC3/C, 1007 North New Street.

Nov. 8, 1945