

Hoehl, Herbert

Three Flyers Awarded Wings

MAR 21 1944

DONALD M. SANDERCOCK
Wind Gap

MURRAY WILBUR STAHL
Quakertown

HERBERT G. HOEHL
Coopersburg, R. 1

Three from this area were among the 219 Pennsylvanians who became combat pilots recently as the 11 Southwestern advanced flying schools awarded wings to thousands of new flyers. Pennsylvania ranked third among all the states in number of men graduated. The three are, left to right, Donald M. Sandercock, Wind Gap, graduate at Altus Field, Oklahoma; Murray Wilbur Stahl, Quakertown, Foster Field, Texas, and Herbert G. Hoehl, Coopersburg, Route 1, Lubbock Field, Texas. All were commissioned second lieutenants.

Mar. 21, 1944