NOV 19 1942

Miss Betty Lou Price to Be Married to M. L. Fritchman, Jr., in Florida December 14.

Mr. and Mrs. James Price, 25 Midship Road, Dundalk, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Lou Price, to Aviation Cadet Marvin L. Fritchman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Fritchman, 17 East Church Street, Bethlehem. The wedding will take place December 14, at Marianna, Florida.

BETTY LOU PRICE

Miss Price attended Goucher College and is employed in a secretarial capacity in Baltimore, Md. Her father, at present, is associated with a large steel manufacturing concern in Jamsbedpur, India. Prior to the war, Miss Price visited her father in India making the trip unaccompanied. She has been the guest lately at a number of social functions given in her honor by her friends in Dundalk. She has visited in Bethlehem on a number of occasions during the last several years.

Cadet Fritchman enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Corps December 17, 1941 and left Bethlehem for training in January of this year. He has since been stationed at Georgia. A month ago he was various fields in Alabama and assigned to Marianna, Fla., where he is completing the last lap of his training. He expects to receive his wings and commission December 14, the date set for the wedding. Prior to enlistment he was employed in the Saucon Mills of the Bethlehem Steel Company. He has not been home on furlough since his induction into the service. He is a graduate of Freemansburg Public Schools, Liberty High School, this city, and attended Moravian College.
