William H. Woods
Ends Navy Service

William H. Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Woods, 1611 Lincoln St., was discharged from the Naval Separation Center at Bainbridge, Md., and arrived home last night.

Woods served in the Navy for two and a half years, receiving "boot" training at Great Lakes, then graduating from Yeoman School at Bainbridge, and being assigned to the amphibious forces. He was stationed in Little Creek, Va., and Coronado Base, Cal.
