

Palumbo, Richard

Bethlehem Youths Enter Coast Guard

The following seventeen-year-old Bethlehem youths were enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve on Tuesday, Sept. 14, at the Recruiting

Office, 321 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia:

SEP 15 1943
Peter Richard Palumbo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Palumbo, of 1304 Broadway; Albert Rocco DeAngelis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeAngelis, 932 Sullivan Street; Joseph Louis Fatebene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Fatebene, of 948 East Sixth Street, and George Joseph Sabolcik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sabolcik, 634 Shields Street.

The youths have been transferred to the Coast Guard Training Station, Curtis Bay, Md., for an extensive period of basic military and nautical training. Following the completion of this "boot training," they will be given every opportunity to attend a service school and learn a special trade.

Sep. 15, 1943