

Williams, David L.

Bangor Bombardier

DAVID L. WILLIAMS

The first man of his graduating class of 43-2 AAF Bombardier School, Big Springs, Texas, to land on foreign soil for combat duty was 2nd Lieut. David L. Williams of Bangor. On May 2, 1943, Lieut. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Williams, of 3rd Street, Bangor, walked down the gangplank and stepped on British soil.

Lieut. Williams won his silver wings as a bombardier and received his commission at the Big Spring Bombardier School January 28th. He is a graduate of Bangor high school, and last worked as a dental technician

Jun. 8, 1943