

Lutters, Robert

T. Sgt. Robert Lutters
Receives Bronze Star

Technical Sergeant Robert Lutters, husband of Mrs. Jeannette Lutters, 733 First Avenue, has been awarded the Bronze Service Star for duty in the Northern France campaign with a Troop Carrier Service Wing unit. Sgt. Lutters is a radio repair chief assigned to a Signal Corps company. FEB 1 1945

Service Wing personnel are the supply and repair men for Troop Carrier squadrons and with their tools, supplies and many varied skills, must set the stage for action.

Prior to his entry into the service in July, 1942, Sergeant Lutters was employed by the Bethlehem Telephone Company. He began his tour of foreign duty in May, 1943, in the European Theater.

February 1, 1945