

Clater, Nelson W.

Three Veterans Back Home in Time for Christmas Holidays

Two Navy veterans and a high-point G. I. have been returned to their homes in this city in time to spend the holidays with their families.

Nelson W. Clater, RdM3/C, husband of Mrs. Helen Clater, 739 Dellwood St., and Stephen F. Lancesek, OMI/C, husband of Mrs. Mary F. Lancesek, 1306 Stanley Ave., are two of 2,072 high-point Navy veterans brought back to the States aboard the USS Hornet, which left Guam Dec. 3, and was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco about Dec. 15.

The Army man, Pfc. George Yenca, son of Mrs. Mary S. Yenca, 728 Hayes St., is one of 526 G. I.'s brought back to the States aboard the USS San Jacinto, which left Saipan Dec. 3 and was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco, Dec. 16.
