

Elwood L. Werner Leaves For Seabees

Elwood L. Werner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Werner, of Wydnor, left Friday for Camp Perry, Va. He recently enlisted in the Seabees. He is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School and was in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Mr. Werner is the third son of Mrs. Werner to enter the armed services. One son, Pvt. Albert Werner, is stationed at McCord Field, Washington, and is now home on furlough, flying here from the Pacific Coast. The other son is Cpl. Joseph P. Riegel of Pine Camp, N. Y., who also expects to be home on furlough next week. Mrs. Werner has been ill for some time and recently returned to her home from St. Luke's Hospital.
