

Tales of the pandemic (1)

The Bethlehem Gadfly coronavirus May 26, 2020

 Latest in a series of posts on the coronavirus

Had to let a “stranger” in to Gadfly house today.

First time anybody from the outside has been inside in the 10 weeks or so of Pennsylvania’s shutdown.

Not kids, not grandkids, not even Ralph, the driver for the Wash Club.

Nobody.

Till today.

Steve from Acorn.

The stairlift died Friday. Happy Holiday weekend.

Emergency.

On Memorial Day Gadfly asked Kevin the Acorn dispatcher if he was working from home on the holiday. “No,” he said, “I’m in the office. Just thankful I have a job.”

Gadfly thankful too. Very thankful. Tip o’ the hat to the Acorn guys.

STOP!

SOMEONE IN THIS HOUSE HAS A WEAK IMMUNE SYSTEM

People with weak immune systems are more likely to catch Coronavirus (COVID-19), and more likely suffer life-threatening complications.

For this reason we are self-isolating and/or practicing social distancing as a preventative measure.

PLEASE RING DOORBELL AND LEAVE DELIVERIES ON THE DOORSTEP

fastway
couriers

Life during the pandemic.

Howz it going at your house?