

Nakata, George Nakata, John

Gets Purple Heart

DEC 28 1944

Mrs. John Nakata, 245 Seventh Avenue, received word that her son, Cpl. George Nakata was wounded somewhere in Holland and had been awarded the Purple Heart.

Cpl. Nakata, who had previously been wounded in battle on the Anzio beachhead, also participated in the invasion of France. He received basic training at Camp Tyson, Tenn., and Fort George Meade, Md., before being assigned to paratroop duty.

A brother, Pfc. John, is somewhere overseas, and a brother-in-law, Pfc. John Makus, is serving in Belgium at present.

December 28, 1944